Going Green – In an effort to reduce the clubs paper usage, if you have supplied an email on your application, the club will automatically use your email as a preferred contact method for membership renewals, newsletters & alike. If you would prefer opt out of Going Green and be contacted via post please tick here.

I understand that canoeing & kayaking are assumed risk water sports that may include inherent risks. I accept these risks & recognise that, whilst the club will take all reasonable precautions to ensure the safety of all members, it is nevertheless my responsibility to ensure my own safety & not to act in any way that creates a danger to anyone. I accept that it is my responsibility to inform the group coach of any medical conditions before participating in a club session. I agree to abide by the Rules & Guidelines, Constitution & Safety Policies of CVCC as displayed on the notice board & available from the Club Secretary upon request.

Conditions of Membership

All members – please note that due to lack of available volunteer coaches to supervise on the water there is no guarantee that all members will be able to participate in every club session.

Parents/guardians – You are responsible for children under your care until you have signed them in with a duty coach. You should not leave your child until they have been allocated to the coach on duty. You must make the coach aware of any medical conditions before your child is left under their care!

A full set of the CVCC Club Rules and Regulations can be seen on the noticeboard or a copy requested from the Club Secretary.

Photos - Members of the club committee may from time to time take photos that include you/your child for use on the website, if you have any objection to this then please let a committee member aware of this. Photos are only taken to promote the club and will not be of individuals, and individuals will not be named unless permission given.

Data Protection - All data in this form will be retained by the club until 1st June of the following season when it will be securely destroyed. CVCC may from time to time need to share your details with approved CVCC members (coaches & trip leaders) when organising & promoting club activities.
